Who this is for

Independent interior-design studios doing 1–10 crore of revenue a year, anywhere in India — from Mumbai, Bengaluru, Delhi-NCR, Hyderabad, Chennai, Pune, Kolkata, Ahmedabad to Jaipur, Lucknow, Indore, Kochi, Coimbatore, Chandigarh, Bhubaneswar, Surat and beyond.

If you sell modular kitchens, wardrobes, full-home interiors or turnkey renovations, this playbook is yours. Steal whatever works. Ignore the rest.

You'll get the most out of this if...

- You handle 5+ leads a week and at least 1 site visit.
- You sell to homeowners (not just builders or B2B).
- You quote in INR with 18% GST.
- You use WhatsApp as your primary client channel.

The Indian buyer journey

Most home-interior buyers in India go through five stages. Knowing which stage your lead is in tells you exactly what to say next.

Stage	Who they are	What they want from you
1. Dreaming	Just-married / new flat owner. Possession 3–6 months away.	Inspiration. Pinterest boards, ballpark prices.
2. Shopping	Visiting 3–5 studios. Asking everyone for a quote.	Speed, brand list, one site they can visit.
3. Deciding	Has 2 quotes. Comparing scope, brands, GST, confidence.	Clarity. Clear scope. A small win that breaks the tie.
4. Building	Token paid. Site work in progress.	Updates, photos, payment clarity, no surprises.
5. Living	Moved in. Telling friends about you (or not).	A reason to refer you. A Reel. A Google review nudge.

Where good leads come from

Ranked by what we see working for studios across India in 2026. Don't try all of these. Pick three and go deep.

Instagram + Reels

Highest intent. Before/after Reels of real homes outperform everything. Post 3x a week. Pin your top 3 to your profile.

Meta & Google Ads

Lead-form ads with city + BHK targeting. Budget ■15–40k/month to start. Always route to WhatsApp, not a generic form.

Google Business Profile

Free. Underrated. Reviews + photos = #1 in 'interior designer near me'. Ask every happy client for a Google review.

Justdial / IndiaMART / Sulekha

Volume but low intent. Useful if you have a junior who can qualify in 5 minutes. Not for senior designers.

Builder & broker tie-ups

Slow to start, compounding. Pick 2 builders in your city; offer their buyers a free 30-min consult. Pay brokers ethically.

Society WhatsApp groups

Most underused. Join your own + 2 friends'. Be helpful, not salesy. One project a quarter from this is normal.

Referrals

Should be 30%+ of revenue by year 2. Build a 90-day after-handover ritual: photos, anniversary message, referral ask.

MagicBricks / 99acres

Co-market with the listing agent. Reach out the day a flat goes 'Sold'. The buyer needs you.

Cold-call openers in 6 Indian languages

First 12 seconds decide if they hang up. State who you are, where you're calling from, and ask one specific question. No selling on call 1.

English

Hi, this is Priya from Homicube Interiors, Bengaluru. I saw your enquiry on our site for a 2BHK at Whitefield — is now a good 60 seconds to ask 3 quick questions, or should I call you after 7pm?

(Bengali · Roman script · Kolkata / Howrah / Siliguri)

Discovery questions that qualify in 8 minutes

Ask these in order. Don't pitch until question 12. If they won't answer Q1–Q5, they're not a real buyer yet — politely book a follow-up.

- Q01. Which city and which area is the home in?
- Q02. Is it a builder flat, resale, villa or independent house?
- Q03. Carpet area in sq.ft? (or super built-up if they don't know)
- Q04. BHK and number of bathrooms?
- Q05. When is possession / when do you want to move in?
- Q06. Who decides — only you, or you + spouse + parents?
- Q07. Have you taken a home loan? Will interiors be on EMI?
- Q08. Budget range you're working with — under 5L, 5–10L, 10–20L, 20L+?
- Q09. Modular kitchen — L-shape, parallel, U-shape or island?
- Q10. How many wardrobes? Any walk-in?
- Q11. False ceiling and lights — full home or only living + master?
- Q12. Have you got quotes from anyone else? What did you like / dislike?

WhatsApp follow-up cadence

Save these as quick-reply templates. Personalise the [name] and [area] before sending. Never send 2 messages in a row without a reply.

Day 1 — within 30 minutes

Hi [name], thanks for the call. Sharing 3 things you asked for: (1) our 2BHK starter package PDF, (2) one site near [area] you can visit this weekend, (3) a brand list. Reply 'YES' and I'll book the visit.

Day 3 — soft nudge

Hi [name], did the brand list make sense? Happy to swap any item — most clients change Hettich → Hafele or Greenply → Centuryply. Want me to send a swapped quote?

Day 7 — value drop

Hi [name], small update — we're locking 2026 rates for 5 more clients this month before Hettich's price revision. If you want this rate held, a 2% token works. No pressure.

Day 14 — re-engage

Hi [name], still thinking it over? Totally fine. Just so you know, we have one slot opening for [possession month] handover. After that it's [+1 month]. Want me to hold it for 48 hours?

Day 30 — graceful close

Hi [name], I'll stop following up — don't want to be that designer ■ If interiors come back on the table, just send 'GO' and I'll re-open your file. Wishing you a great move-in either way.

The 7 most common Indian objections

Don't argue. Acknowledge → reframe → ask. One bridge line each.

"Local carpenter is doing it for half your price."

Bridge: Totally fair. The honest difference is materials and warranty — a local job uses MR ply, ours uses BWP 710 with a 10-year written warranty. Want me to show you the same kitchen in both, side by side?

"My builder is giving free interiors."

Bridge: Most builder packages cap at ₹1,500/sq.ft and use generic finishes. Can I send you a 60-second video of what's actually inside a builder package vs a 2026 modular setup? You decide.

"Show me one site I can visit."

Bridge: Yes — sending you 3 nearby completed homes today. Pick whichever is easiest. Bring your spouse — most decisions get unblocked on the visit.

"Bhai, thoda discount toh banta hai."

Bridge: I hear you. I can't move on rate, but I can add free [smart lock OR chimney upgrade OR 1-year AMC] worth ₹X. Fair?

"Can we avoid GST?"

Bridge: We can't — we're a registered company and your invoice is what protects your 10-year warranty. But I'll show you where we can genuinely cut scope and save more than the GST.

"Will it be done before Diwali / Griha Pravesh?"

Bridge: If we sign by [date] and you finalise hardware in week 1, yes. I'll put the date in writing on page 1 of the contract. Late = penalty on us.

"What if I want changes mid-way?"

Bridge: Built into our process — 2 free design rounds and 1 free site change. After that, changes are billed on a small ₹/hour rate. You're never stuck.

Pricing, GST and the discount conversation

Three rules that protect your margin and your reputation.

Rule 1 — Always quote with GST inclusive on the headline.

Indian buyers shop on the final number. Show ■X (incl. 18% GST). Then break it down. You'll lose fewer leads to 'sticker shock' on page 1.

Rule 2 — Milestone payments: 10 / 40 / 40 / 10.

10% to lock the design, 40% on factory cutting, 40% on site delivery, 10% on handover. Never accept < 10% upfront — it kills commitment.

Rule 3 — Replace discount with a bonus.

Discounts train clients to negotiate harder next time. Bonuses (free smart lock, free 1-year AMC, free crockery unit) preserve the headline rate and feel more generous.

Site-visit playbook

A site visit is your highest-converting moment. Treat it like a performance, not an inspection.

Carry to every visit

- Laser distance meter (Bosch GLM 50 or similar).
- A4 graph pad + 2 pens (one black, one red for changes).
- Sample box: 2 ply pieces, 4 laminates, 2 hardware samples.
- Tape, plumb-bob, torch, masking tape for marking.
- Pre-printed quotation summary (1 page) + brand list.
- Branded shoe-cover bag — small touch, big trust signal.

Photograph (always)

- Every wall, every corner, all 4 directions of every room.
- Existing electrical points, AC drains, water inlets.
- Door swing direction and head-room.
- Window openings and grill type.
- Lift dimensions (for slab transport).

Measure (in this order)

- Wall-to-wall length, then height (floor to slab, not floor to false ceiling).
- Door / window cut-outs with offsets.
- Any beam / column projections.
- Plumbing point centres (for kitchen + bathrooms).
- Electrical point heights (for switchboards behind wardrobes).

Three closes that work across India

Use one — never all three. The right close depends on what's actually blocking the client.

Close 1 — The Festival / Griha-Pravesh close

Use when: client has a fixed move-in date around Diwali, Pongal, Onam, Ugadi, Eid, or a planned Griha Pravesh.

Line: “If we sign this week, I can guarantee handover by [festival date] in writing — with a penalty clause on us if we slip. After this week, the next slot is [+1 month]. Shall I block the factory?”

Close 2 — The EMI / no-cost-EMI close

Use when: budget is the real block, especially for salaried buyers in metros.

Line: “Your full home at ■X works out to ■Y per month on a 12-month no-cost EMI through HDFC / Bajaj — less than your current rent. Want me to share the EMI sheet for your spouse?”

Close 3 — The 'lock the brand list' close

Use when: client keeps asking for “one more day to decide” — they're stuck in comparison mode.

Line: “Let's not commit the full project today. Just lock the brand list — Hettich, Greenply, Merino — at today's rate with a 2% refundable token. Hettich revises 1st of next month. If you don't proceed, full refund. Either way you save ■Z.”

Referrals, reviews and Reels

The cheapest leads in India come from your last happy client. Most studios forget to ask. Build a 90-day after-handover ritual.

Day +7 after handover

Send a 30-second walkthrough Reel of their home (with permission). Most clients re-share it on their own status — that's free reach to their entire society.

Day +30

Send a Google review link with a 1-tap pre-filled message. Conversion is 3x higher than a plain ask.

Day +60

"If you know one neighbour who's also doing up their flat, I'll give them a free 30-min consult and you a ₹5,000 voucher credit on any add-on (chimney upgrade, smart lock, AMC)."

Day +90 and every anniversary

A real photo, a real message — "1 year in your home today. Anything we can tighten / fix / refresh?" Most studios never do this. Be the one that does.

30-60-90 day studio targets

Healthy ratios for a studio doing ■1.5–3 crore/year. Adjust by 1.5x for metros, 0.7x for tier-3.

Metric	Day 30	Day 60	Day 90
New leads	30	70	120
Qualified (passed Q1–Q5)	12	30	55
Site visits booked	6	16	28
Quotations sent	5	13	24
Tokens received	1	3	6
Referrals received	0	1	3
Google reviews collected	1	4	10

One-page checklist — print this

Stick this on your studio wall. If every team member follows it, your conversion goes up 20–30% in 90 days. We've seen it.

Every new lead

- Reply on WhatsApp within 30 minutes (template-ready).
- Run the 12 discovery questions on call 1.
- Tag city + BHK + budget band + possession month in your CRM.
- Book site visit within 7 days, or move to nurture.

Every quotation sent

- Headline price incl. 18% GST.
- Brand list locked with model numbers.
- Milestone schedule (10 / 40 / 40 / 10) on page 1.
- Handover date in writing.
- One bonus item (not a discount).

Every handover

- 30-sec walkthrough Reel within 7 days.
- Google review nudge on Day 30.
- Referral ask on Day 60.
- Anniversary check-in every year.

That's the playbook. Now go book a site visit.
